

GENERAL INFORMATION

Library System

Outagamie Waupaca Library System

Describe demographic, economic, and other facts about your system that influenced the development of this and other system plans.

Nine of the system's sixteen member libraries are located in communities of fewer than 3000 people; eight of those nine are in communities of fewer than 2000 people. Four libraries serve communities whose population is between 3000 and 8000. Kaukauna and Kimberly/Little Chute libraries have community populations of 15,715 and 17,048, respectively. Appleton Public Library has the largest municipal population in the system area, i.e., 73,150 people. It should be noted that two system libraries include municipal population outside of Outagamie County and Waupaca County. Appleton includes 11,165 residents of Calumet County and 1,485 residents of Winnebago County. Marion includes 26 residents of Shawano County.

According to the 2010 census, Outagamie County's population increased 9.8% since the 2000 census, which is greater than the statewide increase of 6.4%. However, Waupaca County's population only increased 1.3% during that period. Waupaca County has an older population, with 18.1% of persons 65 years and older. In Outagamie County 13.2% of the population is 65 years and older. Statewide, 13.6% of the population is 65 years or older.

Diversity within the area's population is still relatively small, with only 2.9% of Waupaca County's population and 7.4% of Outagamie County's population not counted as White in the 2010 census. Persons of Hispanic or Latino origin constitute the largest minority population in both counties, i.e., 3.3% in Outagamie County and 2.5% in Waupaca County. The Asian population constitutes 2.4% of the total population in Outagamie County.

When it comes to educational attainment, 9.3% of the system's residents haven't graduated from high school. However, 34.7% of Outagamie County residents have obtained an Associate degree or above, but only 24% of Waupaca County residents have obtained an Associate degree or above. Income for 8.9% of households in the system area is below the poverty level. The number of households below poverty level increased 81.1% from 2000 to 2010.

OWLS libraries provide a high volume of service to patrons living outside of the municipalities that operate the libraries. For example, OWLS libraries loaned nearly 1.5 million items to non-residents in 2012. Approximately 46% of Outagamie and Waupaca County residents live in jurisdictions without local libraries, i.e., 43% of Outagamie County residents and 56% of Waupaca County residents.

Several libraries are located near the boundaries of the system, and many more people come into the system area to use libraries than go out of the area. The geography of the system area affects the use of libraries in other ways. No library is more than 1-1/2 hours from any other library in the system, and several are located only minutes apart. Consequently, many residents of the system area use more than one library. A significant amount of crossover (inter-municipal) borrowing takes place in the system (c. 180,000 circulations in 2012).

OWLS is one of the smaller of the seventeen systems in Wisconsin. In 2012, OWLS ranked 11th in total population and 11th in state aid received. More than half of the systems include more counties than OWLS. When aggregate measures from OWLS and its member libraries are compared with those of other systems, predictably, the system often ranks near its population ranking (11th) on the raw data for many of the measures. Adjusting for population differences by using per capita comparisons, the system typically ranks higher than 11th.

Several of these measures are striking, particularly those related to the use of system libraries by non-residents. On a per capita basis, OWLS libraries lend more items to non-residents than do libraries in any other system, and OWLS libraries provide significantly more service to residents of other systems than libraries in any other system. In fact, OWLS libraries provide 17% of all the intersystem non-resident circulation in the state. In 2012, OWLS libraries loaned 327,908 items to residents of other Wisconsin public library systems. This was much greater than the statewide average for systems (116,765) and 44,657 more loans than were made by the second ranking system.

OWLS libraries circulate a high number of items, ranking 5th in the number of items circulated per capita. The libraries continue to engage in high levels of resource sharing; the number of items loaned to and borrowed from other libraries is among the highest in the state. It is also clear that OWLS libraries experience a high volume of traffic, i.e., they have lots of people coming through their doors. The number of visits per capita is 5th highest among systems, and the number of programs attended per capita is 2nd.

OWLS libraries continue to rank very low in the number of public computers connected to the Internet (17th per capita). However, use of public Internet computers ranks 13th per capita.

It is also interesting to note that while OWLS ranks 8th in total income per capita and 7th in total operating expenditures per capita, OWLS libraries rank 5th in materials expenditures per capita. OWLS libraries spend a greater portion of their budgets for materials than do libraries in most other systems.

Describe significant needs and problems that influenced the development of this and other system plans.

The development of the 2014 system plan builds upon previous planning activities and previous plans. While many of the system's needs and problems do not change dramatically from year to year, new issues regularly arise, and ongoing issues experience a shift in focus or urgency. A number of 2014 issues and priorities are described below.

Technology Services

OWLS Technology and Resource Sharing Plan: 2013-2016 and OWLSnet Planning Process Report (August 2013) contain extensive detail regarding technology service goals, objectives, priorities, and activities. The primary technology goal is to continue providing services and support to OWLS and OWLSnet member libraries that help them increase patron access to library and information resources and that help them increase the efficiency and effectiveness of library operations. Technology priorities for 2014 are summarized below:

- Evaluating whether the current Sierra ILS platform adequately meets member library needs, and investigating the feasibility of adding a discovery layer product to replace the current online catalog.
- Supporting member library use of technology. This priority includes establishing competencies, providing training, supporting library PCs, assisting with the development of electronic content, enhancing InfoSoup to make it more helpful for library patrons, and implementing new services or software modules requested by member libraries when feasible.
- Maintaining and developing the OWLSnet network infrastructure in order to continue providing up-to-date technology-based services. This includes deploying appropriate network servers and telecommunications equipment and securing sufficient bandwidth to meet library needs.
- Monitoring the impact on member libraries and network infrastructure of changing media distribution systems from the sale of physical items to the licensing of downloadable and streaming media, and working to acquire sufficient digital resources to meet growing patron demand.
- Continuing to work with the Wisconsin Public Library Consortium (WPLC) to maintain an effective statewide digital media collection.

Resource Sharing and Delivery

In 2007, OWLS began contracting with Nicolet Federated Library System (NFLS) to serve as the out-of-OWLSnet interlibrary loan clearinghouse for OWLS libraries. OWLS and NFLS staff have examined the current ILL service and are in agreement that the service is not functioning well. Consequently, OWLS and NFLS recommend rebuilding this service from scratch using WISCAT resourcing sharing software. This process is beginning in September 2013, and it's anticipated that the process will be completed by May 2014.

Funding for Nonresident Service

Pursuing adequate and equitable county and intersystem funding for nonresident services continues to be a high priority for OWLS. OWLS libraries provide a high volume of service to non-residents. In twelve member libraries, over 50% of circulation is to non-residents. Non-resident circulation at member libraries ranges from 38% to 73% of total circulation. OWLS libraries also circulate more items to people living outside of the system area than do the libraries in any other system.

Excellent progress has been made in achieving equitable county funding. In 2009, new county library service plans were developed that called for Outagamie and Waupaca Counties to fund municipal libraries at 100% of their respective funding formulas by the end of the period covered by the plans, i.e., 2014. It is anticipated that both counties will achieve their goals of 100% funding in 2014. New county library service plans will need to be developed in 2014. An issue for consideration during these planning processes is the counties' roles in paying for facilities costs, especially with the Kaukauna library moving to leased space in 2014.

It is much more difficult to address equity issues with jurisdictions outside of the system, especially with counties operating consolidated public libraries because they are not required to compensate libraries in adjacent counties (regardless of the levels of service their residents receive). While some progress has been made toward addressing intersystem equity concerns, some new concerns have emerged. In late 2004, OWLS renegotiated its intersystem on-site borrowing agreement with NFLS. Beginning in 2005, NFLS started paying OWLS for the imbalance in service that occurs between the two systems, primarily as a result of the Marion and Clintonville libraries providing high levels of service to Shawano County residents. For the first time in 2012, Brown County Library billed Outagamie County for service provided to Outagamie residents in 2011. This is unfortunate because Outagamie County libraries provide an equivalent amount of service to Brown County residents and because Brown County isn't compelled to reimburse Outagamie libraries for the service they provide. Consequently, Brown County Library has created an inequity that didn't exist previously.

Calumet County continues to do a commendable job of compensating OWLS libraries for providing service to residents of the County under the intersystem agreement between OWLS and the Manitowoc Calumet Library System, and Waushara County began reimbursing Waupaca County libraries in 2011. Another problem area is between Portage County and Waupaca County. The Waupaca Area Public Library provides a significant level of service to Portage County residents, but because Portage County operates a consolidated county library they are not required to pay for the service they receive.

OWLS will continue to monitor this situation and work with member libraries and adjacent library systems to determine the most effective methods for achieving equity in library services between systems, counties, and libraries. In addition, OWLS will continue to pursue legislative remedies to the current inequities contained in library law and will encourage the Division for Libraries and Technology to establish a task force to study and make recommendations for statutory changes related to county payment issues.

Future of Wisconsin Library Systems

This year the System and Resource Library Administrators Association of Wisconsin (SRLAAW) engaged in a process aimed at determining how systems can remain most effective in meeting member library needs into the future. The result of this process was a number of recommendations regarding the operation, structure, services, and governance of public library systems. A significant theme emerging from this process is the need for increased collaboration among systems, including the possibility of system consolidations or mergers. OWLS will continue to participate in any relevant statewide activities or discussions relating to ensuring a strong future for Wisconsin's systems. In addition, OWLS will pursue any opportunities to investigate increased collaboration with neighboring systems, counties, and libraries.

Financial Position

While the system's financial position appears to be secure for 2014, OWLS is likely to face significant financial challenges in the future. Aid to public library systems was cut by 10% in 2011, and state funding has never equaled the statutory funding level. Many library systems have been struggling for several years and have had to cut services to their members. While OWLS hasn't had to make many service cuts to date, it has been drawing down the fund balance used to supplement annual operations. If funding should be cut or if it doesn't increase in the foreseeable future, it could be necessary to make significant cuts in programs and services.

In 2014, over half of OWLS operating budget will come from fees paid for services by libraries. Because OWLS budget is so dependent on fees, the ability to continue current service levels will also be threatened if local budget cuts affect the ability of member libraries to pay their fees. The fact that 100% of system aids comes from the Universal Service Fund, rather than general purpose revenue (GPR), also places system aids in further jeopardy because some officials and industry groups don't believe this is an appropriate use of the Fund.

The emphasis in 2014 will be continuing to offer a strong program of services to member libraries as efficiently and effectively as possible.

Describe the planning environment and process under which this and other system plans were developed. (List additional system planning documents with the period covered and attach any planning documents which have not previously been provided to the division.)

This year's plan reflects input from a variety of sources. The OWLS professional staff met throughout the year to discuss issues important to the future of the system. The professional staff also met individually with staff from Appleton Public Library, Nicolet Federated Library System, and member libraries on many occasions. The OWLS Director met with his counterparts at Appleton Public Library and NFLS.

OWLS conducted one meeting with member library directors in 2013 (August 23) that was designed to learn more about member library activities and issues. Brown Bag Lunch Meetings are held regularly to give OWLS children's librarians an opportunity to share with each other and with system representatives. The Administrative Advisory Committee of OWLSnet has met three times, and two more meetings will be held before the end of the year. Input from the directors, children's librarians, and AAC meetings was considered in the development of the plan.

The 2014 plan has also been shaped by technology planning that has occurred. In June 2013, OWLS adopted a new technology plan, OWLS Technology and Resource Sharing Plan: 2013-2016. OWLSnet is also engaged in a planning process, and a new OWLSnet Plan is likely to be adopted before the end of 2013.

Perhaps most importantly, the OWLS Board met monthly, holding a number of discussions and taking a variety of actions that contributed to the development of this plan. Finally, the draft Plan was distributed to member library directors and Fox Valley Library Council member libraries for their comments, and their comments were incorporated into the Plan before adoption by the OWLS Board.
